

PUBLIC NOTICE

RENEWAL OF BEACH LICENCES

Pursuant to Regulation 5(i) of the Beach Control (Licensing) Regulation, Beach Licences expire on 31 March of each year.

As such, payments to renew said licences for the period of 2017 to 2018 must be made to the National Environment & Planning Agency (NEPA) on or before the aforementioned date or as set out in the Beach Licence(s).

TAKE FURTHER NOTE that it is a criminal offence to encroach on or use the foreshore or floor of the sea for any public purpose, in connection with any trade, business or commercial enterprise without a beach licence and the renewal thereof.

The Agency will proceed to publicly name all parties that fail to renew their licences while continuing to operate in breach of the Beach Control Act. All measures available in law to ensure compliance will be exercised.
