

Plates

Plate 1: Typical characteristics of the massive, rubble variety of the Font Hill limestone.

Plate 2: Soils overlying the limestone

Plate 3 Site 1- Disturbed dry limestone forest. Note dense growth of forest vegetation and cleared dried plants at the bottom of the image.

Plate 4. Site 1 – Ruinate pastureland across from the Wyndham Hotel.

Plate 5. Site 1 – Limestone substrate with thin patches of soil.

Plate 6. Site 1 – Numerous saplings at margins of dry limestone forest.

Plate 7 Site 2 – Dam surrounded mainly by Acacia plants.

Plate 8. Site 3 – Disturbed dry limestone forest.

Plate 9. Site 3 – Hops bush, one of the dominant shrubs at a number of sites.

Plate 10. Site 4 – Acacia Thicket.

Plate 11. Site 4 – View overlooking the White Witch golf course.

Plate 12. Site 4 – View overlooking dry limestone forest and the Ritz-Carlton.

Plate 13. Site 5. Disturbed dry limestone forest bordered by Acacia thicket.

Plate 14. Site 6 – Dry limestone forest on the golf course.

Plate 15. Site 6 – Vegetation found around the golf course.

Plate 16: Entrance to Half Moon Golf Course

Plate 17: Nursery Dam Owned by Rose Hall

Plate 18: The Less Pristine Doctors Dam

Plate 19: A Typical View of Mount Zion

Plate 20: Rhyne Park Housing Scheme

Plate 21: Trail Bikes Bringing Tourism to Mount Zion

Plate 22: Visitor Look-Out being Built by Citizens in Mount Zion

Plate 23: Fishermen's Solution to Flooding (Grange Pen Beach)

Plate 24: Dumping at Long Bay